FILM MAKER

(G1) on Saturday attests to her sire's and grandsire's remarkable influence in this important contest. The petite dark bay or brown daughter of Dynaformer becomes her sire's third winner of this race in the past four years, as well as the sixth granddaughter of Roberto to hold sway over the past eight editions of the Queen Elizabeth at Keeneland Race Course. In the last eight years, 74 three-year-old fillies have started in the Queen Elizabeth.

Saturday's victory was Film Maker's fourth lifetime win. The Kentucky-bred has not finished off the board in nine career starts. Her best race prior to the Queen Elizabeth was a victory in the Lake George Handicap (G3) at Saratoga Race Course on July 28.

Film Maker is the first foal from the placed Mr. Prospector mare Miss Du Bois. Film Maker's family is anchored by her third dam, Ole Liz, who is the second dam of multiple Grade 1-winning fillies Miss Oceana and Sabin.

Like most of Roberto's top sons at stud, Dynaformer has sired a blend of quality performers on both dirt and turf. The Roberto male line, in general, is providing a valuable source of stallion blood free of both Northern Dancer and Mr. Prospector.
